A Note from Anni:

Anni Wunderlich - President

Hi Everyone:

Here we are, almost into February.
Where did January go?

Once again our New Year's Eve, Glitz at the Ritz at Twin Pines, was a great success; DJ's, Evelyn and Denny did their usual outstanding job and kept the floor filled. It is always a pleasure to see the dancers in their finest; Lana Clemens looked absolutely stunning in a black, strapless evening gown with matching stole, Gail Harden in shot fuchsia taffeta, Judy Steinkraus in a cheeky black, high waisted gown - I could go on and on. People to thank: Those who arrived early to help decorate and set-up, Dolores Meeks for the center-pieces, those who stayed behind to help clean-up, Jeanette, who taught a cute dance. Floor Show: "Bake a Cake" performed by The Twins and their Four Female Friends, "A Dance" by Vickie and Tod, "YMCA" by The Dancing Shamrocks, and "New Year's Resolutions" according to John Gallo. The Hors d'oeuvres, cakes, chocolates etc. were delicious.

Joyce Shannon, Editor

"The Twins Fifth Anniversary" on January 5 was a lot of fun. John and Gina played a good mix of dances which kept the floor filled. Unfortunately Ja Ja's new found twin was unable to be present, but Janet and Belinda discovered they were twins.

"Are My Jeans too Tight" (and I can assure you, mine were - ooh-eee), on January 19, with DJ's Diana and Tina, was a great success. Diana was the first DJ to officially introduce our new concept with regard to dances.

Further on in the Shooter you will find a sheet titled "Guidelines for DeeJays", and on it you will see a list of "Oldies" dances, along with a list of "Club Classics", there is not a list of new dances as they change from week to week. The board met, and with the help of a few members, compiled this list; Jan Hanway then typed it and forwarded same to the DJ's. At every dance an oldie, club classic and new dance will be played in rotation (it will still be your responsibility to mark your initials next to your favorite dances). We're hoping that this will enable everyone to dance at least every third dance.

Our next dance is "Superbowl Saturday" on February 2, with party girl DJ .. JAMIE, so come and join us for a fun evening. Please bring some nibbles to share.

It is time to start thinking about a NEW Board. I'm sure none of you want Quicksteppers to become a mere memory after all these years, but it will if you don't step up to the plate and do your share.

Cheerio,

Anni

Sweethearts Cathy & Claudio Dacumos

Cathy grew up and went to school in the Redwood City area; then started working at the Post Office in San Mateo right out of high school (her father worked there and it seemed like a good idea at the time). She says it “turned out to be a good job in some ways...early retirement (hurray!).” She ended a 9 year marriage “to a real jerk” and less than a year later she met Claudio. She says meeting Claudio “is the best thing that ever happened to me. I think I appreciate him even more after the misery I went through.”

Claudio was born in the Phillipines; his family moved here when he was 3 years old; he thinks of himself as totally American (he became a citizen as a child). He grew up and went through high school in Pescadero. His parents were farm workers, and he often worked in the fields himself as a child. He went to college for a few years then began working for PG & E about 34 years ago. He works in meter reading.

How They Met: Cathy says, “We met through a couple we both knew, the husband worked with Claudio at PG&E and the wife worked with me at the Post Office. We hit it off right away, exchanged phone numbers that day, started dating and have been together as a couple for 13 years.” Claudio & Cathy married last September and are living in San Mateo.

Cathy likes to sew and do needlework; Claudio relaxes by watching sports on TV and doing Sudoku puzzles. They both love live theater and go every year to Ashland, Oregon to the Shakespeare Festival. They love to travel and their favorite destination is Disney World in Florida where they honeymooned.

Dancing – Cathy and Claudio take Ballroom Dance Classes and about 3 years ago started taking line dance classes from Evelyn Khinoo and they are “hooked”. To keep up with the latest line dances they try using the step sheets and “U Tube”. They are having a lot of fun with the line dancing and are delighted to find out how “friendly & welcoming all the Quicksteppers’ are.”
