A note from Anni:

Anni Wunderlich, President

Hello everyone:

The countdown is on for Christmas:

As I write this there are only 5 more shopping days , so who will have time to read this?

Dance Report: October 29 "Halloween", was The King's "penultimate" DJ performance....I can't remember how many dancers packed the Complex, but there were a lot.....it was a GREAT dance: see photos on page 4.

November 5 was "Tick Tock" (turn back the clock) with The DJ Duke, GARY Clayton. Gary always does a super job, and he kept the floor filled. November 19, "Turkey Time" with DJs DIANA & TINA...Unfortunately I wasn't at this dance, but from all reports it was very upbeat, and Diana & Tina did a great job. December 3, "Saddle Sores", All Hale The King....this was Neil's final performance in the San Francisco Bay Area. Ninety plus dancers filled Barrett to say farewell to THE KING....see photos on page 5. December 17 was our Christmas Dance with Party Girl DJ Jamie Hogan. Jamie's amazing, she can find Christmas songs to fit most dances....it was very festive and we all came away feeling in the Christmas spirit. Photos on page 4.

Upcoming dances: January 7, YIKES! It's 2012" with DJs Tina and Jeanette, January 21, "Orange Orange", with DJs Diana and Tina, February 4, "Super Bowl Saturday" with DJs Evelyn and Denny, February 18, "Mardi Gras" with DJs Mike & Joyce.

NEW YEARS EVE....I know there are some of you that still haven't made a reservation, that you're hoping something better will turn up. Well it won't. I can assure you, there is nothing better than CQ's "Glitz at the Ritz". It's an absolute bargain at $20 members, $25 non-members, $20 non-dancers. For this you get...dancing from 8:00 PM to 12:30 AM. Gifts, door prizes, catered hors d'oeuvres and dessert, sodas, coffee and it's BYOB. Truly, it's the best deal in town, and you will actually be with people you like. EVELYN & DENNY will be playing all your favorites from our 1,2,3 format, which means everyone has the opportunity of dancing, and they will be playing couples dances. So don't be disappointed; if you want to be part of it, call me ...650-594-4897.

We recently lost a very dear friend, Joanie Mack. Joanie was a great supporter of Quicksteppers, she was a true inspiration to us all, and we shall miss her. I believe there will be a memorial service in January, and as soon as I know the details, I will send an email. Photo on page 5.

Country Quicksteppers has survived yet another year because of your support, for which I sincerely thank you. I know, we are all experiencing more aches and pains, but don't give in to them, don't become a "coach potato"; there is no better exercise, that's really enjoyable, than dancing: you know what I always say..."Dance for the Health of it".

I wish you a Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Happy Holidays, and Happy New Year.

Cheerio, Anni

Our Halloween dance was held at
The Complex on October 29th

You don't stop dancing because you grow old.....
You grow old because you stopped dancing!

December 17th was our Christmas dance

On December 3rd
Quicksteppers gave
Neil Hale a great send-off as he retires after many years of being the
"King" of DJs!

Sadly, we must say goodbye to long-time Quicksteppers member Joanie Mack. Joanie passed away recently, losing her long battle with cancer. She had been diagnosed eight years ago, at which time her doctors gave her 4 years.....being the fighter she was, she doubled that time. Joanie had been a dedicated line dancer for well over 30 years, although she hadn't been able to dance much in the later years. Her other passion besides dancing was traveling. Joanie loved traveling so much that after retiring from a job with San Mateo County, she became a travel agent. She was able to combine her two passions by organizing many line dance group cruises over the years. She is survived by her husband Steve, a daughter, three sons, and many grandchildren. Joanie will be missed by all of her line dance friends.
